7. Financial Institutions Appointment (2026)

Chairman Handley opened discussion regarding the county’s financial institutions for 2026. Commissioner Jowan Johnson made a motion to reappoint Colony Bank, Rochelle Bank, and the Local Government Investment Pool (LGIP) as the county’s financial institutions for 2026. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Kerney Hair and carried by unanimous vote.

8. Resolution 2026-01 – Qualifying Fees (Districts 1, 3, and 5)

The Board considered Resolution 2026-01 establishing qualifying fees for Districts 1, 3, and 5 for both the Wilcox County Board of Commissioners and the Wilcox County Board of Education.

County Manager Michael Pomirko requested the County Attorney provide additional explanation regarding the calculation of qualifying fees. It was noted that historically the fees have been set at a 3% base rate, without consideration of the Chairman’s higher salary. The proposed resolution reflected an increase in the district 5 commissioner qualifying fee, currently held by Chairman Jamie Handley.

With no further discussion, Vice Chairman Clay Reid made a motion to approve Resolution 2026-01. The motion was seconded by Commissioner Jowan Johnson and carried by unanimous vote.

Approved Qualifying Fees:

Office	District 1	District 3	District 5
Wilcox County Board of Commissioners	$144.00	$144.00	$216.00
Wilcox County Board of Education	$144.00	$144.00	$144.00

OLD BUSINESS Action: No action taken.

DEPARTMENT HEAD REPORTS

Sheriff Jeff Wessel

- Reported 4,189 calls for service during 2025.
- Total inmate housing for 2025 was 272 inmates, with a weekly average population of 28.

Janice Brown

- Reported a new cot would arrive soon, with Dirty South Customs scheduled to install the rack next week.
- Reflected on 2025 activity, reporting 51 cases handled by her office, including 16 originating from the state prison.

Charles Futch & Ricard Rhodes: No report.

COUNTY MANAGER’S REPORT (Michael Pomirko)

- Provided updates on setting up banking accounts and transferring funds for the Fire Station and Equipment account.
- Reported that county offices are supplying all required information to auditors to ensure a strong start to the audit process.

- Advised that discussions with Randy Rathburn should result in a GDOT update regarding Owensboro Road and the GA Highway 215 inspection recommendation.
- Informed the Board that a design proposal RFP for the Jail/Sheriff's Office was issued, with additional information expected in the coming month.

COUNTY ATTORNEY'S REPORT (Toni Sawyer)

- Apologized for arriving late to the meeting.
- Provided clarification on Resolution 2026-01, stating that state law requires qualifying fees to be based on 3% of the salary, and since the Chairman earns a higher salary, the increased fee for District 5 is required by law.

COMMISSIONERS' COMMENTS: None recorded.
